

I am opposed to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. The whole move smacks of Nazi Germany in the 30's.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Forcing stations to air this film is electioneering! When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
